PATRONAGE OF SPORT AT PALMETTO PARK SUFFERS SLUMP IN CONSEQUENCE.

Layers Continue to Operate at a Loss at South Caro lina Track and Their Number Shrinks to Nine -Racing Marked by Close Finishes.

Charlesion, S. C., February 10.—Disagreeable weather detracted from the racing at Palmetto Park this afternoon and caused a falling off in attendance, Recent heavy losses depleted the ranks of the layers, and only nine operated today, which is the smallest number of the meeting. The program, though an ordinary one, at times furnished some good sport, the finishes being close and exciting. The fourthace, a dash of one mile and twenty yards, resulted in a rousing finish, with the first four strong across the tracks heads apart. Billie Baker, the winner, was much the best, but suffered from weak handling and was on the extreme outside at the finish.

Another hard fought contest was that in the fifth, when Roger Gordon and Kiva fought it out stride or stride most of the way and finished heads apart. Roger Gordon was the best supported favorite of the day and his success was attended by vast losses to the layers. Under capable handling, Willis, which finished third, would have returned the winner. The half-mile track contingent, which is well represented here, put over a good one in Harcourt, backed from 20 to 1 to 12 to 1 in the opener. In some of his recent attempts, Harcourt has been badly deficient in speed. He was altogether a different horse today and a sharp contender from the start.

Larbureter, at odds-on, was an easy winner in the second, but Gladys Y, might have led him home but for the weak handling J. McIntyre gave her, as a result of being taken suddenly ill during the running. He was forced to cancel his riding egagements later because of a fainting spell on returning to the jockey room. Turner was substituted for McIntyre on Dr. Dougherty and gave that horse a glit-edged ride that landed him a winner over Tom Hancock, the favorite.

Jockey C. Kuight, who had the mount on Harcourt, made it a double for the afternoon when he brought Ruisseau home a winner in the final dash, for which br. Jackson was an overwhelming favorite and barely staggered in third.

TWO-YEAR-OLDS OF 1913 THAT REPAID THEIR PURCHASERS

Every racing year brings out its crop of two-year-olds which more than repay their purchase prices ligh or low, also those that are more or less costly failures. The year 1913 was no exception. The Futurity winner, Pennant, shows the greatest profit in actual money won, but a number of others show a much greater percentage over cost prices, the $40 Harwood with $1.743 won being a conspicuous example. Being young horses and not raced much, some of the apparent disappointments may redeem themselves in the racing of this year and will do so if aristocratic breeding counts for anything. The following examples of both sides of the matter are worth consideration:

IMPOSTS IN GREAT ENGLISH HANDICAPS.

Weights assigned the nominations to the important handicaps of the early English flat racing season were published January 30. Acceptances have been made by this time and betting quotations on the Lincolnshire Handicap and Grand National Steeple-chase always follow their publication closely. So Joel's great horse Long Set is topweight in the Lincolnshire at 131 pounds, with J. B. Joel's Spanish Prince second to him at 121. American-bred horses in the race are Sir Martin, 113 pounds, Cheerful, 101, Outran, 99 and High Rock, 92. This race takes place March 25 at Lincoln and is a mile dash for $7.500. The Liverpool Spring Cup at a mile and three-eighths will be run March 26, and for this event Balscadden is high weight at 126 pounds, Lorenzo, Light Brigade and Scots Saint following at 122 pounds each. Of this trio Light Brigade won eleven consecutive races for Lord Derby last year before meeting defeat in the Duke of York Stakes at Kempton Park last October.

Only one American is engaged, Dalmatian representing Louis Winans at 113 pounds. The $20,000 Grand National Steeplechase will be run March 27. Last year's winner, Coverteoat, is top weight at 173 pounds, with the French jumper, Lutteur III. which won two years farther back, next at 174 pounds. King George's Twelfth Lancer is given 161 pounds and will have a host of loyal followers if he goes to the post. The conditions of the big race have been changed so that the minimum weight has been cut down from 140 pounds to 133 and a job lot of eighteen horses that never did much of note in racing are in at the latter impost. In the Batthyany Plate of five-eighths of a mile at Lincoln. March 24, the Americans weighted are Forward, 121 pounds, Panasine, 116 and Niblick, 91. The Austrian horse, Adular is top weight at 133 pounds, with Golden Sun next at 129 and the Americans, if ready, have a chance in this race, Panasine particularly.

The Newbury Spring Cup, at a mile straight, will be decided April 2 and Light Brigade at 126 pounds heads the list, with Thistleton second at 123. American-breds and their weights are: Sir Martin, 122. Cheerful, 108, Sands of Time, 103 and High Rock, 102. Cheerful is a four-year-old by Plaudit—French and came close to winning a fortune for his owner last fall when he ran Cantilever to a head for the Cambridgeshire Handicap. The Kempton Park Queen's Prize will be run April 23, and for the Cambridgeshire Handicap. The Kempton Park Queen's Prize will be run April 23, and for the Cambridgeshire Handicap. The Kempton Park Queen's Prize will be run April 23, and for the Salscadden is also at the top with 126 pounds. It is at a mile and a half and Dalmatian at 113 pounds is the only American weighted, April 121 will bring about the decision of the Great Metropolitan Handicap of two miles and a quarter at the Epsom Spring meeting. Again Balscadden figures as high weight at 129 pounds and Fantasio is next at 121 pounds, the Americans being Dalmatian, 117, October, 108 and Stung Again, 93. October i

HORSES GALEN BROWN WILL TRAIN.

The stable of A. V. Schmieder, now in charge of trainer J. Galen Brown, consists of eleven three-year-olds, fifteen two-year-olds and three older horses. The latter division includes the five-year-old Colleoni, which last season was overweighted in handicaps, and therefore did not run as successfully as in the year previous, when he defeated Quirl in the Beyerischen and ran second in the Grand Prize of Magdeburg; Malve, a four-year-old daughter of Hannibal, which placed in her first start, and Rubezahl, a son of Malua, which made his debut in the Tuki race, lost much ground and yet took third place under the whip to Mars La Tour and Orelio. The stable is strong in two-year-olds and should make a good showing in races for horses of that age. Seven are sired by Malua, two by Macdonald II. and two by Beregvolgy. Herr Schmieder finished the season of 1913 strongly and is in search of a first-class jockey for the coming season.—Deutscher Sport.

RUNS FAST SEVEN-EIGHTHS

DOROTHY DEAN REDUCES JUAREZ TRACK RECORD FOR DISTANCE TO 1:23%.

Fuller Mare Accomplishes Notable Feat in Winning San Felipe Handicap-Jockey Gross Shows Bit of Old Time Skill.

El Pase, Tex., February 10.—Dorothy Dean, from the stable of J. W. Fuller, reduced the Juarez track record for seven furlongs to 1:23% in winning the San Felipe Handicap this afternoon. She won under a mild hand ride and was drawing clear from New Haven at the finish. It was a grand race to witness. New Haven made the pace, followed closely by the good three-year-old, Bob Hensley, recently purchased by Jefferson Livingston. Then came Gordon Russell, and a short distance behind, the favorite, Dorothy Bean. As they came down the stretch it looked as if Bob Hensley would be returned the winner, as he was gaining rapidly on New Haven, but suddenly Dorothy Dean came like a flash and, passing both the leaders, reduced the record made not long ago by Pay Streak.

Jockey Gross showed some of his old-time form today in piloting the last two winners, Goldium and Prince Conrad. Both received giltedged rides that materially helped them to win their races.

The layers recovered some of their recent losses today, as only one favorite got home first.

John C. Ferris purchased Polls today from Henry McDaniel. Trainer W. Scofield acted for the latter.

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE TETRARCH,

Ever since The Tetrarch was retired from racing last year, veiled allusions to some accident that ne experienced have appeared from time to time in the English turf publications, without in any case naming the actual occurence. Recently, however, the Newmarket correspondent of London Sportsman gave the following explanation of the case: "All our leading three-year-olds have wintered well; in fact, I have not heard of one being sick or sorry throughout the recess. On looking over Coreyra the other morning I could not help noticing his improved appearance, for he is filling out into a very fine three-year-old, which brings to my mind a matter of interest in connection with his great rival. The Tetrarch. During the week a gentleman who is interested in the flying grey wrote to me to say that the colt is wintering well, and that he does not think there is much doubt about his being trained this year. Certainly he did meet with a mishap last autumn, for in pulling up after a gallop he overreached himself and hit a fore tendon sharply, with the result that he had to be stopped in his work and had the actual cautery applied to the place in the shape of what is known as pin firing. The colt is, he says, now as sound as ever he was, and it is to be hoped be will continue to keep so, for though if he does he will be in the way of all our best three-year-olds, none of us would like to see a good horse go wrong. That he is a smasher none who ever saw him race can doubt."

A FRENCH TURFMAN'S ACTIVITIES.

The French government has recognized the services of M. Edmond Blanc, who paid $187,500 for Flying Fox, by conferring on him the Legion of Honor. M. Blanc has played a most important part in the history of the French turf since Mublenne as far back as 1879 won him the first of his seven victories in the Grand Prix. He holds the record in respect to the number of wins and in 1903 ran first, second and third. Following his usual custom he sent Vinicius (third in the Grand Prix) to fulfill his engagement in the Epsom Derby, where he took second place behind Rock Sand. M. Edmond Blanc commissioned M. de St. Albin, when he bought up all the sporting papers published in Paris and merged them in "Le Jockey," to visit Newmarket and report fully on the different charities and benevolent institutions organized at the headquarters of racing in England, and became the founder of the "Jockey's Hospital," using his personal interest to obtain a grant towards the building from the government out of the funds supposed to be applied for "charitable purposes." He failed, however, as regards an endowment, All the resources of the French government's rake-off from the parl-mutuels were, some said, required to maintain the prestige of "Marianne," as the system is called, and M. Edmond Blanc, at the general request of colleagues on the turf, accepted the position of chairman of the comittee. The institution is dependent on the subscriptions volunteered by those interested, but the expenses are guaranteed by the committee.—Harry Good in Montreal Mail.

JAMES BUTLER IN MARKET FOR YEARLINGS.

Lexington, Ky., February 10.—Richard C. Benson, days devoted to the inspection of thoroughbred year-lings on many of the farms in the vicinity of Lexington, left ionight for a visit to H. T. Oxnard's Blue Ridge Stud at Upperville, Va. "I intend to buy about twenty year-lings for Mr. Butler this year and am just now having a look at the crop," said he. Benson said he did not know when he would make the purchases. He says the Butler two-year-olds in the east are doing well at the Empire City track.

SPRING MEETING UNLIKELY AT OAKLAWN

Hot Springs, Ark., February 10.—The movement to revive racing here this spring seems destined to fail. The committee of the Business Men's League which has had the matter in charge has been able to raise only $12,500 of the $20,000 required by the owners of the Oaklawn track to guarantee the expenses of the meeting and the track owners are disinclined to modify their requirements in this respect, II is probable that an effort will be made to bring about the arrangement of a fall meeting at Oaklawn.
